

SOURCE 4: A document ('appreciation') in which Churchill set out the arguments he would use in a War Council meeting, dated 25 February 1915 (CHAR 2/74/57)

	On a scale of 1-5 how far do you agree that this source supports this inference?	Which extract(s) from the source support your argument?
An attack on Gallipoli seems like a sensible plan of action.
Churchill doesn't have the full support of the Council for this plan.
This new plan is a major change from the original plans.
There are plenty of troops available.
Churchill's plans seem over-optimistic.
