

SOURCE 6: Extracts from letter to Churchill from Clement Attlee about recent debates in the House of Commons, 20 December 1941 (CHAR 20/23/107)

	On a scale of 1-5 how far do you agree that this source supports this inference?	Which extract(s) from the source support your argument?
This letter is particularly useful because it's a private communication between Attlee and Churchill.
Attlee would have a reason to exaggerate disagreement in the House of Commons.
Personal letters like this can't be trusted to show what Attlee really thought because he'd want to show how effective he was as a future Prime Minister.
