

SOURCE 3: Extract from the British government's weekly summary of the military situation in August 1940 (CHAR 23/6 (IMAGES 2-3))

	On a scale of 1-5 how far do you agree that this source supports this inference?	Which extract(s) from the source support your argument?
The information would be damaging if it fell into enemy hands.
The greatest danger to shipping was when ships came close to their destination.
Navy vessels are more effective against U-boats than aircraft.
The summaries of shipping losses appended to the War Cabinet report in this investigation support my inference above. The Chiefs of Staff aren't particularly worried about U-boat activity.
