

SOURCE 8: Speech notes for Churchill's radio broadcast made immediately before the coronation broadcast of Queen Elizabeth II on 2 June 1953 (CHUR 5/51A-C (images 454-460))

	Tick if this is present	If you have put a tick, what makes you think this?	On a scale of 0-5 (0 being absent and 5 being strongly represented), indicate how important this attribute is to the speech.
Correctness of Diction Is it clear what Churchill means even if some words are unfamiliar?
Rhythm Does his speech seem like blank verse poetry?
Accumulation of Argument Does he build his argument?

Analogy Does he use examples from the past or from people's knowledge to illustrate his point?
Emotions of the speaker and the audience aroused Do the audience know Churchill's final point before he gets there?			