

SOURCE 5: Letter from the D'Eyncourt to Churchill (CHAR 2/109/136 [29-31])

	On a scale of 1-5 how far do you agree that this source supports this inference?	Which extract(s) from the source support your argument?
The tank trials have been very successful
The War Office believes the tank can make a big difference in the war
The Landship Committee has solved all the problems surrounding the development of the tank
With Churchill out of government it has been very difficult to push forward development of the tank

Who deserves credit for developing the tank?

Churchill Archive for Schools Investigation

Tennyson d'Eyncourt knew that Churchill would be interested to learn about the progress in the development of the tank
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--	--