

SOURCE 4: Memorandum relating to potential value of tanks (CHAR 2/109/136 [5-7])

	On a scale of 1-5 how far do you agree that this source supports this inference?	Which extract(s) from the source support your argument?
Churchill has seen tanks in action in England
Churchill is cautiously optimistic that tanks can change the course of fighting on the Western Front
This memorandum is aimed at the military commanders
This memorandum is aimed at civilian decision-makers

Churchill is not trying to sell the idea of tanks, but is simply providing information to the government
Churchill demonstrates a good understanding of the way tanks could be useful
Churchill felt that this document was significant evidence of his involvement with the development of the tank		