Review Questions

Chapter 11: Collection Maintenance

1. What is the single most important activity of a collection developer?

2. What is weeding a collection?

3. What steps should be completed before weeding a collection?

4. List the information you'll need to undertake a weeding project.

5. What materials should you have when you begin weeding?

6. What is the name of the Texas State Library and Archives Commission's weeding method? What does it stand for?

7. What criteria do many libraries use in the weeding process?