

Review Questions

Chapter 15: Collections for the Digital Age

1. Why are collection developers turning toward access instead of ownership?
2. What are the most important common elements shared by electronic collections?
3. List some of the ways electronic collections offer new possibilities for access.
4. Name some disadvantages of electronic material.
5. What is the digital divide?
6. If libraries are less often owning material, how are they making it available to users?
7. What is digital right management?
8. List the categories of license mentioned in the chapter.
9. List the 2 ways eBooks can be downloaded and read
10. What evaluation criteria should collection developers use when selecting electronic content?