

SEVENTH EDITION

The School Library Manager

Leading through Change

Blanche Woolls, Joyce Kasman Valenza, and April M. Dawkins
Introduction by Sharon Coatney

Chapter Three: Getting that Position

Review Questions

There are many different places to start your job hunt. What are some of the suggestions mentioned in this chapter to start looking for your dream job?

What are some preparations you should complete before a job interview that will help you to stand out with your interviewer?

Requirements vary from state to state on licenses/credentials a librarian must have to practice. What are some of the requirements required? What does your state require?

Remember the essential questions from the beginning of the chapter? Now that you've studied this chapter, are you able to answer these questions?

- What must you do to establish your credentials?
- What are the most effective strategies for getting your first professional position?

To further deepen your understanding of this chapter, be sure to look at the Challenges to Promote Growth found on pages 44–45.