

Exercise C2.2: Prepositions

Each of the prepositions you have met in Chapter 2 is followed by a noun in the accusative case.

Translate into Latin each of the phrases in purple in the sentences below.

To find the right ending for the noun, you need to check which declension it is in, and whether or not it is neuter. You can look up these endings on p54.

e.g. We remained near the Greeks. prope Graecōs

1. He ran towards the weapons.
2. They went into danger.
3. I threw the spear into the river.
4. He went through the wood.
5. We remained near the weapons.
6. You ran across the river.
7. They threw arrows towards the Greeks.
8. You went into the wood.
9. We ran through the spears.
10. She ran against the Romans.
