

Exercise B3.3: Identifying nouns and adjectives in the accusative and ablative cases

This exercise uses nouns and adjectives from the vocabulary lists for Chapter 2 and Chapter 3.

In the table below, label each word as a noun or an adjective, identify its declension, and then state whether it is in the accusative or the ablative case. Remember that you may need to look the word up to check its declension.

		noun or adjective?	declension	accusative or ablative?
e.g.	feminam	noun	1st	accusative sg
1	difficilibus
2	malum
3	equīs
4	fēlicī
5	montēs
