

Exercise B6.6: Future tenses of irregular verbs

This exercise focuses on the irregular verbs' future tense forms which you have met in Chapter 6.

Choose the correct form of the future tense for each irregular verb.

e.g. The cruel girls will be absent. (aberit / aberunt)

1. Your daughter will be beautiful. (erit / erunt)
2. You (pl) will not be able to fight. (poteris / poteritis)
3. I shall go to the war. (ībō / ībimus)
4. The brave men will carry large weapons. (ferent / ferēmus)
5. The boys and girls will be present at the house. (aderit / aderunt)
6. Will you (pl) go to my shop? (ībis / ībitis)
7. I shall be able to capture the savage slave. (poterō / poterimus)
8. The god will not want to make weapons for the Romans. (nōlet / nōlent)
9. Will you (sg) be able to respond to my words? (poteris / poteritis)
10. Will he want to call the slaves to the fields? (volet / volent)