

SECTION C6: ENGLISH TO LATIN SENTENCES

Exercise C6.1: Verb tenses

Choose the verb in the correct tense for the sentence.

e.g. The young man will soon eat dinner.

(cōnsūmit / cōnsūmet / cōnsūmpsit)

1. The cruel queen will rule many lands.

(regit / reget / rēxit)

2. Once there was a savage king in the city.

(est / erit / erat)

3. Now a slave is fighting with a huge sword.

(pugnat / pugnābit / pugnābat)

4. The Greeks used to build sacred temples for the gods.

(aedificant / aedificābunt / aedificābant)

5. Will you (sg) go to the city with the young men?

(īs / iistī / ībis)

6. They saw boys and girls eating in the fields.

(vident / vidēbunt / vīdērunt)

7. Slave, do you hear the farmer?

(audīs / audīvistī / audiēs)

8. We slave-girls always carry water from the river.

(ferimus / ferēmus / ferēbāmus)

9. I shall be able to run with the children again.

(possum / poteram / poterō)

10. When will the men seek help from the gods?

(petunt / petent / petēbant)