

Exercise B14.4: Translating ablative absolutes

Each of the ablative absolute phrases below contains a noun and a participle in the ablative case and uses words from the vocabulary lists for Chapters 13 and 14. Translate the following ablative absolute phrases literally into English. Remember that deponent verbs have a perfect active participle.

1. poena cognita

2. vulneribus celatis

3. manu procedente

4. labore acto

5. arte sensa

6. animo vivente

7. gaudio sperato

8. rebus promissis

9. exercitu progresso

10. manu regresso