

Exercise C14.3: Sentences to translate into Latin

1. With his feet hidden by much blood, the soldier knew that he had been badly wounded.
2. The defeated leader dared to hope that he would return home.
3. On the third day, the ships, which were carrying many troops, were destroyed by the wind.
4. The boy whose father had been killed promised to weep for a long time.
5. It was very difficult to see the messenger who was speaking in the forum.
6. All the children thought that their parents did not understand about new things.
7. The sailors were accustomed to set out by ship, but soldiers always advanced on foot.
8. They say that one mother is suffering but the other has died.
9. He reports that the inhabitants want to return but the enemy are trying to advance.
10. They seemed to be returning to their homes, having suffered many wounds.