

Exercise B9.5: Imperfect active and perfect passive

This exercise focuses on verbs from the vocabulary list for Chapter 9.

Choose the correct Latin for each of the verbs in purple in the sentences below.

1. He was inviting them to his homeland. (invītābat / invītātus est)
2. They were invited to a new place. (invītātī sunt / invītābant)
3. They were guarded by a cruel enemy. (custōdiēbant / custōdītī sunt)
4. They were defending the town in vain. Then they were defeated. (defēnsī sunt / dēfendēbant)
5. They were led into battle by an excellent leader. (ductī sunt / ducēbant)
6. A very brave soldier was leading his comrades into battle. (ductus est / ducēbat)
7. A sad and cruel war was waged in the homeland. (gerēbat / gestum est)
8. Often the Romans waged war against their enemies. (gerēbant / gesta sunt)
9. The letters of the captured men were burned. (incendēbant / incēnsae sunt)
10. The books written by the enemy were seized. (rapiēbant / raptī sunt)