

Exercise C10.2: Sentences to translate into Latin

1. It was necessary for us to flee, because our town was being burned.
2. I used to have a book written by a very famous Roman named Caesar.
3. 'O slave, bring me more wine!' said the master, while eating dinner.
4. The soldier wounded by the savage enemy asked for more water.
5. When the enemy were attacking, our men were the first to burn the houses.
6. Although his men fought very bravely, the leader was overpowered, captured and killed.
7. It was not safe to flee, because the town was being guarded by a savage, cruel enemy.
8. Because the soldiers did not have enough weapons, they were overpowered by the inhabitants of the town.
9. Surely the children who were taught by the good teacher were praised by their parents?
10. Some men want to have more gold, but others want bigger swords.