

Chapter 2 Becoming Fluent in Linguistics: Foundations for Grammar

Interesting websites, short texts, and presentations

- The Best Fruit and Vegetable Juice Lawsuit: Practical Law Commercial (2013, August 16),
'NAD: Superlative Adjectives in Comparative Ad Claims are Not Puffery',
https://content.next.westlaw.com/5-538-1025?_lrTS=20200721130640396&transitionType=Default&contextData=\(sc.Default\)&firstPage=true&firstPage=true)
- McCulloch, G. & Gawne, L. Episode 16: Learning Parts of Words - Morphemes and the Wug Test. Lingthusiasm.
- McKean, E. (November 2014). Go Ahead, Make Up New Words! TEDYouth 2014.
- McWhorter, J. (July 2013). A Brief History of plural Word...S. TED-Ed.
- Quinn, G. (March 2018). Using Sign Language Morphology to Unlock Science Education. TEDxHeriotWattUniversity.