

Contents

List of figures and tables	xv
List of plates	xviii
About the author	xx
Acknowledgements	xx
Preface	xxi
Guided tour of the book	xxx
List of abbreviations	xxxii
Guide to case study and country features	xxxiv

part 1	The international dimension and the organization	1
chapter 1	The business enterprise in the international environment	3
	Chapter outline	3
	Learning objectives	3
	Introduction	4
	International business in a changing environment	5
	Entrepreneurship goes global	8
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 1.1 Will more franchises deliver super-size profits for McDonald's?	11
	Cross-border enterprises: their internal environment	12
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 1.2 Ericsson adapts its traditional strengths to a changing environment	15
	CASE STUDY 1.1 PepsiCo's path to internationalization	20
	COUNTRY FOCUS 1.1 – JAPAN Electronics industry spearheads Japanese economic recovery	23
	The organizational environment	25
	Key organizational players in the international business environment	27
	COUNTRY FOCUS 1.2 – VENEZUELA An uncertain future for foreign multinationals in Venezuela	29
	CASE STUDY 1.2 Volkswagen struggles to get back on the road	35

chapter 2	Perspectives on globalization	37
	Chapter outline	37
	Learning objectives	37
	Introduction	38
	What is globalization?	39
	Methods of internationalizing operations	43
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 2.1 Puma on top of the world	45
	COUNTRY FOCUS 2.1 – THE USA What has happened to American manufacturing jobs?	47
	CASE STUDY 2.1 Nokia keeps competitors at bay	50
	Theories of international business expansion	52
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 2.2 Dyson cleans up	56
	Changing patterns of FDI	57
	COUNTRY FOCUS 2.2 – INDIA ‘Made in India’ comes of age	61
	Impact of globalization on societies	63
	MNEs and social impacts	70
	CASE STUDY 2.2 IBM and Lenovo: a tale of globalization	73
part 2	The environment of IB	75
chapter 3	The economic environment	77
	Chapter outline	77
	Learning objectives	77
	Introduction	78
	Comparing national economies as a whole	79
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 3.1 The Samsung empire untamed – for now	84
	Inflation: a national and global phenomenon	85
	Focus on specific aspects of national economies	87
	COUNTRY FOCUS 3.1 – THE UNITED KINGDOM Two-speed Britain	92
	Public finances	94
	Diverse economic systems	97
	CASE STUDY 3.1 Heineken seeks refreshing changes	99
	Transition economies	102
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 3.2 Aviation Valley attracts high flyers	104
	Regional integration	107
	COUNTRY FOCUS 3.2 – ROMANIA Romania open for business at last	108
	The least developed economies	111
	CASE STUDY 3.2 Wal-Mart’s great leap forward	113
chapter 4	The cultural environment	117
	Chapter outline	117
	Learning objectives	117
	Introduction	118

	Culture's many facets	119
	The springs of culture	121
	COUNTRY FOCUS 4.1 – TURKEY Turkey between past and future	125
	Culture theories	130
	Business and culture	133
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 4.1 Flexible approach builds value for Chugai–Roche alliance	138
	Changing cultures in the modern world	139
	CASE STUDY 4.1 Testing times for Citigroup in South Korea	140
	COUNTRY FOCUS 4.2 – MEXICO Mexico struggles to heal divided society	146
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 4.2 Arab media reach out	150
	CASE STUDY 4.2 DIY goes global	152
chapter 5	The political and legal environment	155
	Chapter outline	155
	Learning objectives	155
	Introduction	156
	Political systems	157
	COUNTRY FOCUS 5.1 – RUSSIA Whither democracy in Russia?	163
	Political risk	167
	CASE STUDY 5.1 Online gambling's uncertain future	172
	Government and business	174
	COUNTRY FOCUS 5.2 – FRANCE Evolution or revolution in the French political environment?	175
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 5.1 Building an empire with ABC Learning Centres	179
	National legal frameworks	180
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 5.2 YouTube and the new internet era	182
	Assessing legal risks	183
	Regional dimensions: the EU as a supranational union	185
	International organizations and law	186
	CASE STUDY 5.2 Royal Dutch Shell humbled but looking to the future	190
part 3	Competing in the global marketplace	193
chapter 6	International trade and regional integration	195
	Chapter outline	195
	Learning objectives:	195
	Introduction	196
	Trade in the global economy	197
	COUNTRY FOCUS 6.1 – GERMANY Two sides of Germany's star export performance	200

	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 6.1 China turns to Africa	204
	International trade theories	205
	National competitiveness	209
	Government trade policy	212
	CASE STUDY 6.1 Boeing and Airbus on a collision course	216
	The WTO and multilateral trade agreements	218
	COUNTRY FOCUS 6.2 – BRAZIL Brazil becomes an agricultural superpower	221
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 6.2 Precarious future for Kenya's export processing zones	224
	Regional trade and economic integration	225
	CASE STUDY 6.2 Piecemeal liberalization of world trade in textiles and clothing	233
chapter 7	Strategy and organizations	237
	Chapter outline	237
	Learning objectives	237
	Introduction	238
	Internationalization strategy	239
	COUNTRY FOCUS 7.1 – POLAND Contrasts and contradictions in Poland's business environment	245
	Strategy in the changing environment	247
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 7.1 Weg Electric motors ahead in international market	250
	Organizational structures in the international context	252
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 7.2 ABB's journey towards success through structural change	256
	Organizations and networks	258
	CASE STUDY 7.1 Slimmer Unilever seeks renewed growth	259
	National variations in firms and networks	263
	COUNTRY FOCUS 7.2 – SOUTH KOREA Bright prospects dimmed by uncertainty within South Korea's businesses	265
	Organizational change	268
	CASE STUDY 7.2 Nissan looks beyond the turnaround	272
chapter 8	Marketing	275
	Chapter outline	275
	Learning objectives	275
	Introduction	276
	Marketing in the organizational context	277
	International market expansion	281
	COUNTRY FOCUS 8.1 – CHINA China's consumer boom takes off, but are all on board?	286

STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 8.1 Excitement mounts as Hispanic media take to a wider stage	290
COUNTRY FOCUS 8.2 – SOUTH AFRICA Buoyant South Africa on a wave of optimism	293
Products and branding	295
CASE STUDY 8.1 Global brands and local products light up Procter & Gamble	300
Reaching consumers	302
STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 8.2 Changing attitudes to advertising to the under-12s	308
Marketing and ethics	309
CASE STUDY 8.2 Restoring the shine to the golden arches	312

part 4	Managing in the global environment	315
chapter 9	Human resource management	317
	Chapter outline	317
	Learning objectives	317
	Introduction	318
	HRM in the international organization	319
	National environmental factors in IHRM	323
	COUNTRY FOCUS 9.1 – VIETNAM Vietnam: what about the workers?	327
	IHRM policies and practices	329
	CASE STUDY 9.1 Look good and feel good with L'Oréal	335
	Employee relations	336
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 9.1 GECAD reinvents itself	338
	COUNTRY FOCUS 9.2 – SWEDEN Sweden's evolving social model	341
	Managing across cultures	343
	IHRM in international alliances	346
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 9.2 Austrian banks look eastwards	349
	CASE STUDY 9.2 Shifting centre of gravity for Indian outsourcing companies	352
chapter 10	Supply chains	355
	Chapter outline	355
	Learning objectives	355
	Introduction	356
	Supply chain management in theory and practice	357
	COUNTRY FOCUS 10.1 – SPAIN Globalization's changing fortunes in Spain	362
	Global sourcing	364
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 10.1 Bosch steers a steady course in changing vehicle markets	369

	Global manufacturing strategies	370
	COUNTRY FOCUS 10.2 – SLOVAKIA Slovakia counts the gains from foreign investors	373
	Quality management	375
	CASE STUDY 10.1 Toyota goes global	378
	Logistics	383
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 10.2 Maersk encounters bumpy seas	386
	CASE STUDY 10.2 Dell makes changes to regain competitiveness	390
chapter 11	Finance and accounting	393
	Chapter outline	393
	Learning objectives	393
	Introduction	394
	Overview of global financial markets	395
	The international monetary system	396
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 11.1 Has APP learned the lessons of Asia's financial crisis?	403
	Managing foreign exchange	404
	Global capital markets	407
	COUNTRY FOCUS 11.1 – HONG KONG Hong Kong thrives from Chinese connections	409
	International corporate finance	412
	CASE STUDY 11.1 Sparks fly in Mittal Steel's takeover of Arcelor	417
	COUNTRY FOCUS 11.2 – DUBAI Dubai looks beyond oil wealth	421
	International accounting issues	423
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 11.2 Cultural revolution in Chinese accounting	428
	CASE STUDY 11.2 A sweet future for Cadbury Schweppes?	431
chapter 12	Innovation and strategy	433
	Chapter outline	433
	Learning objectives	433
	Introduction	434
	The elements of innovation	435
	Theories of innovation in international business	437
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 12.1 Martek Marine rides the waves of innovation	439
	Innovation in the national environment	442
	COUNTRY FOCUS 12.1 – SINGAPORE Singapore strives to climb the innovation ladder	445
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 12.2 Amadeus strikes a new chord with customers	449
	Innovation and the organization	451

COUNTRY FOCUS 12.2 – SWITZERLAND Is Switzerland losing its competitiveness in innovation?	455
Co-operative innovation strategies	458
Managing innovation	460
CASE STUDY 12.1 Kodak – a new business model for the digital age	462
CASE STUDY 12.2 Is innovation under threat in the pharmaceutical industry?	468

part 5	Global issues and IB	471
chapter 13	Ecological challenges for business and society	473
	Chapter outline	473
	Learning objectives	473
	Introduction	474
	Elements of the natural environment	475
	The changing environment and societies	476
	COUNTRY FOCUS 13.1 – EGYPT Is Egypt balancing environmental and economic agendas?	480
	Governance and the environment	485
	COUNTRY FOCUS 13.2 – AUSTRALIA How sustainable is Australia's export boom?	490
	Business strategy and sustainability	492
	CASE STUDY 13.1 BP's green strategy takes a battering	495
	Environmental management in practice	498
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 13.1 Whole Foods Market: more than a niche player	502
	Shared responsibilities: businesses and governments	503
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 13.2 Customer-led packaging innovation from Huhtamaki	507
	Focus on consumers	508
	CASE STUDY 13.2 Who's driving the green car?	511
chapter 14	Corporate social responsibility	513
	Chapter outline	513
	Learning objectives	513
	Introduction	514
	Corporate social responsibility (CSR) and related concepts	515
	COUNTRY FOCUS 14.1 – NIGERIA Sharing the benefits of oil wealth in Nigeria	518
	Theories of CSR	520
	COUNTRY FOCUS 14.2 – MYANMAR (BURMA) Is doing business in Myanmar compatible with CSR?	524
	CSR and international corporate strategy	526

	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 14.1 Accenture's corporate citizenship profile	528
	CASE STUDY 14.1 GrupoNueva blends performance and social responsibility	530
	Philanthropy and social entrepreneurship	531
	Accountability and ethical behaviour	535
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 14.2 Anglo American's CSR principles under fire	544
	Reporting CSR	545
	CASE STUDY 14.2 Nike's evolving CSR strategy	548
chapter 15	Global governance	551
	Chapter outline	551
	Learning objectives	551
	Introduction	552
	Global governance	553
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 15.1 Product Red: a new business model in the making?	556
	COUNTRY FOCUS 15.1 – KAZAKHSTAN Kazakhstan seeks a new role on the international stage	559
	Meeting global challenges	562
	COUNTRY FOCUS 15.2 – BURKINA FASO Staying poor or building a new future: Burkina Faso	568
	Shifting influences in global markets	574
	CASE STUDY 15.1 Gazprom – an ordinary company?	578
	Trends and issues in international rule-making	580
	STRATEGIC CROSSROADS 15.2 China welcomes the internet, but on its own terms	586
	Corporate social responsibility (CSR) and global governance	587
	CASE STUDY 15.2 Microsoft versus competition authorities: and the winner is...	590
	Epilogue	593
	Appendix 1: Atlas	595
	The World 596; Europe 598; Middle East 599; Africa 600; South America 601; Central America 602; North America 603
	Appendix 2: Country data	606
	Glossary	613
	References	619
	Index: Business organizations	626
	People	628
	Subject	630

List of figures and tables

Figures

1.1	Comparison of the local, national and international business	6	3.8	Budget deficits in selected countries (as percentage of GDP)	95
1.2	Dimensions of the international environment	8	3.9	Top rates of corporation tax	97
1.3	Early stage entrepreneurial activity, 2006	9	3.10	Differing models of capitalism	98
1.4	The global entrepreneur	11	3.11	FDI flows to selected countries in Central and Eastern Europe	103
1.5	Roles within the public company	13	3.12	Chinese annual wages in manufacturing	106
1.6	Changing ownership of UK equities	14	3.13	EU budget 2005, percentages of total, €116.5bn	111
1.7	MNE multi-tiered ownership structure	17	4.1	Facets of culture	120
1.8	Business functions in the international context	18	4.2	Cultural diversity: percentage of population from cultural minorities within countries	122
1.9	Executive managers and company stakeholders	22	4.3	The importance of religion in people's lives	123
1.10	Alliances, networks and joint ventures	25	4.4	World religions, as percentages of world population, 2005	124
1.11	MNE interactions	28	4.5	The world's most widely spoken languages	128
1.12	The European Union and eurozone	32	4.6	Hofstede's cultural dimensions	132
2.1	Globalization	40	4.7	Organizational culture	134
2.2	Methods of internationalizing operations	44	4.8	Percentage of foreign directors on the boards of the largest MNEs in selected countries	137
2.3	Product life cycle	53	4.9	Projected growth of urban and rural populations in less and more developed regions of the world	141
2.4	Incremental internationalization	54	4.10	Growing cities in the developing world	142
2.5	Dunning's eclectic paradigm	55	4.11	Comparison between percentages of men and women in the adult labour force (selected countries)	143
2.6	Growth in value of global FDI stock	58	4.12	The global gender gap (ranking in brackets)	143
2.7	FDI inflows, 1994–2006	58	4.13	Foreign-born people as percentage of total population	145
2.8	Number of MNEs based in developed, developing and transition economies	60	5.1	Features of authoritarianism and democracy	159
2.9	FDI outflows from developing and transition countries	60	5.2	From authoritarian to democratic: selected countries	159
2.10	Share of the top 1% of earners in gross income in selected industrialized countries	64	5.3	Respect for institutions in Latin America (2007)	167
2.11	Number of internet users per thousand people	67	5.4	Internal political risks	168
2.12	Globalized production and social impacts	70	5.5	Transparency International's Corruption Perception Index, selected countries, 2007	169
3.1	GDP of selected countries, 2003–06	80	5.6	International risks	171
3.2	Economic growth in selected countries	83
3.3	CPI inflation	86
3.4	Annual growth in GDP per hour worked	87
3.5	Productivity and growth	88
3.6	Unemployment in selected countries, 2006	89
3.7	Current account balances (as percentage of GDP)	90

5.7	Business regulation in selected countries	178	9.3	International HR planning	330
5.8	Dimensions of the legal environment	181	9.4	Employee relations in the MNE	336
5.9	Legal risks in overseas locations	183	9.5	Trade union density in selected countries	340
5.10	Most numerous types of litigation in the US and UK (2004)	184	9.6	The transnational manager	344
6.1	Business, government and social impacts of trade	197	9.7	Degrees of integration in acquired organizations	349
6.2	The world's leading merchandise exporting countries	199	9.8	Foreign acquisitions by emerging market companies	351
6.3	Long-term trends in merchandise exports	203	10.1	The external supply chain	358
6.4	Shares of world merchandise exports ($11,783 billion), 2006	203	10.2	Different types of supply chain	358
6.5	The Heckscher-Ohlin-Samuelson theory	207	10.3	Make-or-buy decisions	364
6.6	National competitiveness rankings	212	10.4	Global sourcing decisions	367
6.7	Tools of government trade policy	214	10.5	Fordist mass production compared to flexible mass production	371
6.8	Financial support for agricultural producers, 2005	216	10.6	Elements of total quality management	377
6.9	Share of intra-regional trade flows in each region's total merchandise exports, 2006	225	10.7	Breakdown of costs for goods imported into the US from China	384
6.10	Levels of regional economic integration	226	10.8	Container trade at the Port of Long Beach	386
6.11	Merchandise exports of Mercosur countries by destination, 2006	227	11.1	Overview of global financial markets	396
6.12	Merchandise exports of Nafta countries by destination, 2006	228	11.2	From fixed to floating exchange rates: international diversity	398
6.13	EU trade among member states and with major non-EU trading partners, 2006	230	11.3	Monetary policy among IMF member states, 2006	399
6.14	Africa's regional exports by region, 2006	232	11.4	The US dollar's decline against other major currencies, 2002–06	399
7.1	Internationalization strategies	240	11.5	Internal and external factors in the Asian financial crisis	401
7.2	Location decision	244	11.6	Amounts outstanding on interest rate and currency swaps	405
7.3	SWOT analysis and beyond	247	11.7	Number of listed companies on major stock exchanges, 2006	407
7.4	Porter's five forces model	248	11.8	Leading exchanges' shares of total share trading by value, 2006	408
7.5	The multidivisional structure	253	11.9	Shifting investments of worldwide pension funds	411
7.6	Contrasting models of multidivisional companies	254	11.10	A comparison of equity and debt financing for private and public companies	413
7.7	The global matrix	257	11.11	Cross-border mergers and acquisitions by companies in developed and developing economies	415
7.8	The network organization	258	11.12	Growth in hedge funds	419
7.9	Aspects of strategic and organizational change	269	11.13	Influences on national accounting practices	424
8.1	Levels of marketing	278	12.1	Elements of innovation	436
8.2	Generic marketing strategies	279	12.2	Stages of development (change)	441
8.3	Global marketing strategy	281	12.3	The national innovation system	443
8.4	Analysis of country markets	283	12.4	Gross domestic expenditure on R&D as a percentage of GDP in selected countries	443
8.5	Market entry strategies	291	12.5	The top seven countries in R&D: breakdown in sector, 2006	444
8.6	Market entry analysis	293	12.6	Innovation in different types of international business	451
8.7	Rankings of global brands for 2007	297	12.7	Potential benefits and risks of co-operative R&D agreements	459
8.8	Own-label share of consumer packaged goods spending	299	12.8	Equity and non-equity R&D agreements	460
8.9	The marketing mix	302
8.10	Distribution channels	307
8.11	Overlapping spheres of ethical issues	310
9.1	Elements of international human resource management	320
9.2	Cultural and institutional environments of IHRM	323

12.9	Internal and external aspects of managing innovation	461	14.6	Percentage of companies with control-enhancing mechanisms	538
12.10	The main intellectual property rights	465	14.7	Breakdown of executive compensation in the US	540
13.1	Environmental indicators	476	14.8	Employees directly and indirectly connected to the MNE	541
13.2	Industrialization and its impacts	477	14.9	Growth in non-financial reporting by companies	546
13.3	Air pollution in selected cities	479	14.10	Types of non-financial report issued by companies, 2001–03	547
13.4	Rising levels of greenhouse gases	483	15.1	Dimensions of global governance	554
13.5	Global CO ₂ emissions, 2006	484	15.2	Types of organization in global governance	555
13.6	Greenhouse gas emissions per capita in EU, 2004	484	15.3	Meeting the challenges to peace and security	563
13.7	Determinants of corporate environmental strategy	492	15.4	Improving human well-being	565
13.8	Identifying and responding to environmental impacts	499	15.5	Proportion of people living on less than $1 a day in selected regions	566
13.9	Share of total greenhouse gas emissions in the EU 25 countries by sector, 2004	504	15.6	Emissions of carbon dioxide (CO ₂), 1990 and 2004	570
13.10	Shifting sources of power generation in the UK	504	15.7	Official development assistance as percentage of GNI, 2006	571
13.11	Hierarchy of waste treatment methods	507	15.8	The world's largest listed and unlisted companies, 2006	575
14.1	Corporate social responsibility and related concepts	516	15.9	The world's largest sovereign wealth funds	576
14.2	A multidimensional CSR model	521	15.10	Global financial governance	581
14.3	Dimensions of stakeholder engagement	522	15.11	Number of internet users per 100 of population, 2002 and 2005	584
14.4	Corporate strategy and CSR	526
14.5	Types of recipient organization receiving the greatest shares of US donations, 2006	533

Tables

2.1	What does globalization mean for business, society and government?	40	6.1	African regional groupings	231
3.1	Selected high-, middle- and low-income countries	81	9.1	Types of international orientations in MNEs	322
3.2	Selected developed, transition, developing and least developed countries	82	12.1	Channels of technology transfer	448
3.3	Inequality measurements for selected countries	91	12.2	The world's 20 largest companies by R&D spending, 2006	453
4.1	Transnationality rankings of companies	138	15.1	Three theories of global governance	557
5.1	Ratification of major human rights conventions	187	15.2	The highest recipients of aid for trade, 2002–05	574

List of plates

1.1	The outdoor café has become a popular aspect of city life around the world.	5	5.1	A fireworks display in Bangkok. The people of Thailand have cause to celebrate the return of civilian government, but the country's military leaders remain powerful.	157
1.2	Companies specializing in picture technology stand to gain in a world increasingly focused on screens.	25	5.2	The bright lights of the casino sign spell excitement and a chance to win riches, but online gambling now offers a range of alternatives with excitement of their own.	173
1.3	Not far from the modern buildings symbolizing oil wealth, poor living conditions are signs of the divisions in Venezuelan society.	30	5.3	Poor children in developing countries, such as these in India, are vulnerable to exploitation and the harmful effects of accidents in industrial operations.	188
2.1	Mobile phones are now part of everyday life for people the world over, such as this user in India.	39	6.1	This impressive chemical complex in Germany contributes to the country's strong position in industrial exports.	202
2.2	Football has become popular in Africa, boosted by hosting the World Cup in 2010.	46	6.2	Brazil's status as an agricultural superpower owes much to its large-scale farming, such as this vast sugar plantation.	222
2.3	Workers streaming into the factory at the start of the day – a sight becoming familiar around the world, as industrialization spreads.	68	6.3	For these textile workers in Africa, investment has brought jobs, but they are vulnerable to global competition.	234
3.1	Government economic policies impact on consumers' spending decisions and also on perceptions of their country's political leaders.	78	7.1	Proximity to steel production, such as this foundry which supplies vital inputs, is a factor in deciding on location in many manufacturing industries.	243
3.2	Leisure activities such as going to bars and restaurants with friends are popular aspects of social life – and also a growth area for international business.	100	7.2	Global brands must compete with own-brand rivals, such as these hair care products, to win over consumers.	260
3.3	Retailing has gone global, with the advent of large stores such as hypermarkets, which are now expanding in emerging markets.	114	7.3	This dashboard of a Nissan sports car signifies one of the many global markets which Nissan is targeting.	273
4.1	Bright red lanterns greet the Chinese New Year, a time for family reunions and celebrations.	119	8.1	Shopping malls, now springing up in emerging markets, have become synonymous with modern consumer society.	285
4.2	The border between Mexico and the US is symbolic of the barriers posed for poor people seeking opportunities for a better life in the US.	148	8.2	The affluence of Cape Town, South Africa, seen in the modern buildings shown here, reflects the country's economic growth.	295
4.3	New apartment blocks such as these in Shanghai offer entry into middle-class urban lifestyles for millions of Chinese, and also opportunities for businesses which cater for their needs.	153	8.3	A favourite with children, but the burger is now seen as contributing to childhood obesity.	309

9.1	Work in the industrial plant in the background contrasts with traditional agricultural work in the nearby rice paddy.	328	12.3	Digital cameras, which have fallen rapidly in price, have transformed family photo-taking.	463
9.2	Teamworking leads to greater understanding across cultural and organizational boundaries.	345	13.1	Blame for the rise in greenhouse gas emissions rests heavily on coal-burning power stations.	482
9.3	India's expertise in IT, exemplified by the IT professionals pictured here, is now being expanded into a range of business services in global markets.	353	13.2	The parched banks of Australia's depleted Murray River tell a sad story of overuse and drought.	491
10.1	This 1876 photograph shows China's first railway train, setting out from Shanghai towards Woosung on the Yangtze River.	357	13.3	Paper recycling has become an important growth industry globally, due to resource constraints and environmental pressures.	506
10.2	Advances in the factory production line combine the benefits of mass manufacturing and customization.	370	14.1	These highly revered Buddhist monks are important in Burmese culture and society, which have been strained to breaking point by the harsh military regime.	525
10.3	The advent of the container revolutionized shipping and necessitated the building of specialist container ports.	385	14.2	Medical aid for vaccinations such as this one is an aspect of corporate philanthropic activities targeted at poor developing countries.	532
11.1	For quality-conscious retailers, upgrading the appearance of stores and maintaining the flow of new product lines, although costly, help to maintain customer satisfaction and boost sales.	395	14.3	Fair trade initiatives, such as fair trade coffee production pictured here, have contributed to CSR strategies.	543
11.2	Shares can rise and fall frequently, even in the course of a single day, tracked by trading screens in the many stock exchanges now established around the world.	408	15.1	Gleaming buildings in Kazakhstan's new capital, Astana, point to the country's global ambitions.	558
11.3	Dubai's ambitious waterfront construction projects reflect its aspirations as a global financial centre.	423	15.2	This Indian woman is among India's millions of inhabitants struggling to survive on less than $1 a day.	567
12.1	Green energy from wind turbines is rising up the agenda for both governments and innovative technology companies.	435	15.3	The construction of this gas pipeline in Leningradsкая, Russia is helping to boost the country's exploitation of its valuable gas resources.	579
12.2	Biotechnology research is growing rapidly. The monitor in this photo shows a live image of human cells.	447	15.4	The internet depends on complex infrastructure, as seen in this photo of an IT professional working with internet cables.	586