

Appendix 11

Name story

Read the story to the children and insert different children's names into the story. When they hear their name, they must stand up and sit down. When you say 'EVERYONE', all the children have to stand up and sit down.

Going to the seaside

It was an exciting day. All the children in _____ were going on a trip to the seaside! The bus arrived and _____ got on first. Then _____ got on and sat right at the back. The journey was long. _____ fell asleep. _____ got very hungry and ate _____'s lunch and _____ sang songs very loudly all the way. When they arrived, _____ started building a sandcastle. _____ looked in the rock pools and _____ collected shells along the beach. Then it was time for lunch! EVERYONE got their sandwiches out. _____ finished their lunch first and ran down to the sea. _____ went for a paddle while _____ had a ride on the donkeys.

_____ finished their sandcastle and _____ helped them to get some water in their buckets. _____ found a crab under a stone and scared _____ with it.

Then it was time to get ice creams for EVERYONE. _____ had strawberry flavour. _____ had chocolate and _____ had vanilla with a flake. There was time for one racing game before they got back on the bus. _____ ran really fast but _____ won.

Then it was time to go home. _____ (name each child) climbed back on the bus and on the way home EVERYONE fell asleep. It had been a lovely day.
