

Chapter Outlines

Introduction

Chapter Outline

Learning and knowing

Comparative and international education

Global discourses on education

Overview of the book

Useful websites

1 Education and International Development

Chapter Outline

Introduction

Education and colonial rule

Birth of the 'development era'

Human capital and modernization theories

Aid agencies

Case studies: Nepal and Zambia

Summary

Useful websites

2 Redefining Development: Education for All

Chapter outline

Introduction

Redefining development: from growth to poverty reduction

The right to education: education for all

The first decade of EFA: Jomtien to Dakar

EFA in the twenty-first century

Key issues in education for all

Case study: Education for All in Bangladesh

Summary

Useful websites

3 Critiquing Education and International Development

Chapter Outline

Introduction

Conceptualizing development critiques

Power, politics and the donor agenda

Marxist perspectives and world systems analysis

Poststructuralism, postcolonialism and the discourse of deficiency

Case study: 'saving' Asha

Analysis: three key questions

Summary

Useful websites

4 Education in Conflicts and Emergencies

Chapter Outline

Introduction

Contemporary conflicts and emergencies

The two faces of education and conflict

Beyond two faces: the education and conflict dialectic

Education in emergencies: conflict and post-conflict settings

Case study: education and conflict in Nepal

Summary

Useful websites

5 Conceptualizing Globalization and Education

Chapter Outline

Introduction

The globalization perspective

The challenge to comparative education

Theoretical perspectives on globalization

Case study: globalization and decentralization

Summary

Useful websites

6 Education and the Global Knowledge Economy

Chapter Outline

Introduction

Conceptualizing the global knowledge economy

Education in the global knowledge economy

International achievement tests

Critical perspectives on the knowledge economy

Summary

Useful websites

7 International Discourses on ICT in Education

Chapter Outline

Introduction

Technology and education

The digital divide and ICT for development

The case for ICT in international education

Case study: One Laptop Per Child

Critical perspectives on ICT and education

Summary

Useful websites

8 Globalization and Higher Education

Chapter Outline

Introduction

Higher education in the global knowledge economy

International dimensions to higher education

The General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS) and the liberalization of higher education

Regionalization and higher education

Summary

Useful websites