

The Right Thing

David Cameron tells ITV News he will take 10% pay rise saying the right thing to do is to be paid the rate for the job personally

the right thing to do is to be paid the rate for the job but added he didn't agree with IPSA's decision

The Prime Minister did not say what he would do with his pay rise but did say that it gives you the opportunity to do more in terms of charitable giving and things like that

We believe in standing up and helping those people who want to do the right thing not the wrong thing

Next to doing the right thing the most important thing is to let people know you are doing the right thing

You can always count on Americans to do the right thing after they've tried everything else

Sometimes it is better to lose and do the right thing than to win and do the wrong thing

If I lose the ball
I lose it trying to do the right thing That's the way it is

I truly believe we're on the brink of something special in our country we can make Britain a place where a good life is in reach for everyone who is willing to work and do the right thing

David Cameron has said it was the right thing to do to give the troubled charity Kids Company a £3 million grant just days before it was forced to close

The Government thought it was the right thing to do to give this charity one last chance of restructuring to try and make sure it could continue its excellent work

Where Labour do the right thing like those education reforms we'll back them

A country that backs those that work hard and do the right thing

This is a one nation Government that does the best thing for the economy and the right thing for the country to encourage people to behave responsibly because they know that doing the right thing and taking responsibility will be recognised and will make a difference post-bureaucratic politics is about understanding that you can make doing the right thing more appealing through incentives like money You can make it easier for people to do the right thing by removing obstacles or hassles from their path apply gentle social pressure by making it clear to people that others their friends and neighbours are already doing the right thing Responsibility is people doing the right thing That's not theory – it's fact you are rewarded for working hard and doing the right thing we have put our country back on the right track Britain

is on the right path

Our goal is a country that not only rewards those who work hard

and do the right thing
but gives everyone no matter their background the chance to fulfil their potential if you did the right thing you were penalised if you did the wrong thing you were rewarded with the unfairness of it all infuriating hardworking people

We believe that cutting people's taxes is the right thing to do to provide the right incentives for people to work

That ambition remains the right one it should be a right

We are putting things right the British Bill of Rights and we will ban the police we will introduce a new law that will pardon those people and right these wrongs extending the Right we have reinvigorated the Right right across our country

We will extend the Right

It is unfair that they should miss out on a right under the extended Right we will take forward a new Right scrap the Human Right and the rights of victims key rights for victims including the right to make a personal

The Government will scrap the Human Rights Act and introduce a British Bill of Rights

If you have worked hard during your life saved paid your taxes
and done the right thing

We are building a Britain where everyone who has worked hard
can enjoy security in retirement to keep our family of nations together was right the right thing to do and the question of Scotland's place in the United Kingdom is now settled a British Bill of Rights will restore common sense and led the world in promoting women's rights the right of Israel to protect its security will continue to support universal human rights

We will ensure our Armed Forces overseas are not subject to persistent human rights claims

Tackling global poverty is both the right thing to do and in Britain's interests

Those who work hard and do the right thing must be rewarded who do the right thing working hard and doing the right thing
