

Defend the author

In the boxes below are examples of figurative language from the text. Underneath each example, tell me why you think the author chose to use this language. Think carefully about why the author has made the decisions they have in the text.

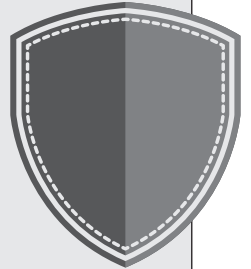

Example 1:

The author chose this because...

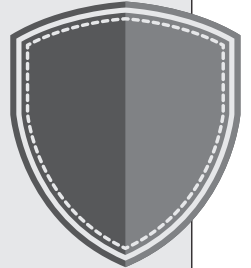

Example 2:

The author chose this because...

Example 3:

The author chose this because...

Example 4:

The author chose this because...

