

Name:

Date:

Camillus at Falerii

Complete the following translation of story 8.21. Many, but not all, of the gaps are for verbs. Some represent more than one word.

The Romans, whom Camillus _____, _____ Falerii. _____ in the city a teacher who _____ the sons of the aristocrats. He often _____ these boys _____ the fields: There, _____ their bodies. Although a war
_____, he _____:
_____ of the danger. He seemed to be an excellent teacher; now, however, _____ a wicked plan. For _____ the boys to the Roman camp, because _____ to hand them over to the enemy. When _____ the camp, _____ the _____ himself.

“_____ to you,” he said, “_____ Falerii to the Romans. _____ these boys, _____ the city. For their fathers _____ great power. Because _____ to seek peace, _____
_____ to you.”

Name:

Date:

When Camillus _____ this, _____ by anger.

“You wicked man!” he said. “_____ here in vain with a wicked gift.

We Romans _____ with men, not with boys who _____ defend themselves. _____ Falerii with Roman skills, courage and weapons.” Then _____ the boys canes and _____ them to punish the teacher. The boys _____ the teacher. Then, _____, they _____ into the city; the citizens of Falerii _____ them from the walls of the city _____.

Soon, _____ messengers to Camillus because

_____ to make peace.

eheu! magister scelestus virgis a pueris verberatur. multus sanguis fluitur. mox, urbs Romanis dabitur.