BLOOMSBURY
DIGITAL RESOURCES

BLOOMSBURY

cite them right

A student's must-have tool

Cite Them Right is an online platform designed to advise students on how to reference correctly across eight referencing styles.

What makes Cite Them Right unique is the range of referencing styles which can be accessed, including Chicago, Harvard, APA, IEEE, MLA; as well as teaching the user how to reference just about any source. This platform contains useful articles and videos which help to guide students into common queries around referencing, including how to avoid plagiarism and understanding the differences between secondary and primary sources.

Features & Benefits:

- Step-by-step guidance offered for Harvard, APA, MLA, MHRA, Chicago, OSCOLA, Vancouver and IEEE referencing styles

- Examples and opportunities to try citing for yourself

- Easy to use and accessible to all

- Range of relatable article content, and step-by-step videos to help you get the most from your subscription

- Extensive range of source types including: books, journals, media and art, digital and internet, research materials, legal materials, social media, and blogs

- Monthly newsletter based around a specific relatable theme, such as referencing and plagiarism

citethemrightonline.com