Churchillarchive

Supporting higher education courses in history and politics

- Provides expert guides to support international higher education course modules
- Includes more than 800,000 pages of original documents
- Ranges from personal correspondence to exchanges between great leaders

"This is the holy grail of twentieth-century archives."

Martin Farr, Director of Undergraduate Studies, School of Historical Studies, Newcastle University, UK

FIND OUT MORE at www.churchillarchive.com

Take a Tour – for a demonstration of how to use the site

Ask the Archivist – find out how to use an archive

Explore – search by topic, place, people or period

Discover personalization – save searches, export, download and print

