

Main Activity Material: Chapter 3 Lesson 6

Semicolon Worksheet

With your partner, find the run-on sentence and practice using a semicolon. Not all sentences require a semicolon so make sure to read the sentences carefully.

1. The salad was yummy, it was a mixture of lettuce, shrimp and mango.
2. The runner passed the finished line in record time, the crowd cheered wildly.
3. Make sure to keep to the left of the traffic, someone was honking loudly.
4. The man answered the door, and welcomed the guests with a kind smile.
5. The dog chased the ball, he jumped in midair and caught it.
6. The pizza man couldn't find our house, and he drove around for hours looking for our house.
7. Don't shout, people are trying to sleep.
8. Try the tacos, they are amazing.
9. The bell rang, the class filed out of the classroom immediately.
10. Please try not stain the carpet, the floors can be slippery.