What is a Paragraph?

Cut these sentence strips out, mix them up and then try to arrange them in the correct order.

There are many toppings you can add to a pizza.

You can choose a delicious meat topping.

For example, pepperoni is a tasty option that goes well with cheese and different vegetables.

Vegetables also make perfect toppings.

For example, mushrooms, peppers and onions are healthy options and help you to get your daily five servings of vegetables.

Some people like unusual toppings as well.

For instance, many people think pineapple, anchovies or truffles taste delicious on a pizza. They provide contrasting flavours and add sweetness or saltiness to the usual toppings.

Pizza is a food that is enjoyed by many people. What is your favourite pizza?
