

Types of Sentences

Instructions

1. Cut out the three different punctuation speech bubbles.
2. Cut and lay out the three strips labelled 'Asking', 'Telling' and 'Exclaiming'.
3. Cut out the sentence strips.
4. Read each sentence strip and decide which label it should go under.
Place it under the correct label.
5. Decide what type of punctuation to use for your sentence and place the punctuation mark at the end of the sentence.

Types of Sentences

asking

telling

exclaiming

I am angry

Why are you here

I will smell the flower

Mitch had a snack

What a lovely day

What time is it

You are the best

The bird made a nest

They had a nice time

The pizza smells yummy

Where is my hat

Who is there

I am angry

What a pretty face

We drove to the shop

My house is big

Why will it take so long

Help me