

Here is the letter with my suggested changes:

Dear Annabelle,

Hi! My name is Jordan _____ and I'm a recent _____ University Acting graduate from _____. Needless to say, this is a unprecedented time to be entering into the industry and when a filmmaker creates art that inspires me, I'm compelled to reach out.

Mickey and The Bear resonated with me in many ways, especially the themes of unrealized potential and the breaking free from complacency. Mickey's struggle and eventual break for freedom exemplified resilience which I really appreciate in the world right now. So I want to thank you for a film that will stay with me for quite some time to come.

Upon reading that your next project will be _____, I felt compelled to contact you. I'm very familiar with Jean-Marc Vallé's work and your collaboration with him is a dream project. The opportunity to be on set, as either cast or crew, would be an extremely valuable experience. It is a career goal of mine to work with artists like you.

I'm ready to break out and take the world by storm!

Best,

Jordan _____
