

ART, RACE AND GENDER

HELP DECOLONISE AND DIVERSIFY YOUR CURRICULA

The Art, Race and Gender collection focusses on women artists, artists of colour, art and feminism, masculinity, class, race, sexuality, ethnicity and related topics. It combines comprehensive encyclopaedic and bibliographic background material with cutting-edge research from established and emerging scholars and practitioners.

The authoritative and varied range of titles will help support teaching and research focussed beyond the traditional canon of artists, aiding the exploration of the concepts of identity in art. It is an unmissable resource for students and scholars of art history, fine art, visual culture and related visual arts fields.
