

BLOOMSBURY
ARCHITECTURE
LIBRARY

A BLUEPRINT FOR ARCHITECTURE STUDIES

Bloomsbury Digital Resources' award-winning collection
for architecture

LJ
BEST IN REFERENCE
2022

Photo Credit: Getty Images

Content

A landmark new edition of Sir Banister Fletcher's Global History of Architecture: The 21st edition contains:

- The first full re-write since Banister Fletcher was alive, with updates by over 100 experts
- A global focus, reflecting the latest scholarship in global architectural history
- Unparalleled detail on the world's architecture from pre-history to the present day
- Fully searchable through the entire platform and within chapters on the Bloomsbury Visual Arts digital hub
- Two volumes, seven parts and 102 chapters that clearly divide 5,500 years of architecture by cultural contexts, resources and technologies for easy comparative analysis
- Descriptions of thousands of major buildings, accompanied by over 2,200 photographs, drawings, and building plans including new and original material

Over 120 eBooks:

- Scholarly eBooks on architecture, architectural history, theory, design, urbanism, landscape, and interiors
- Includes The Handbook of Interior Architecture and Design

For more information and to organise a free trial for your institution, contact your local representative below:

Americas:
OnlineSalesUS@Bloomsbury.com

UK and Rest of World:
OnlineSalesUK@Bloomsbury.com

Australia and New Zealand:
OnlineSalesANZ@Bloomsbury.com

www.bloomsburyvisualarts.com

Features

- Building pages with key information about the world's most important buildings all in one place: location, date, architect, description, materials, images, and more
- A clickable world map linked to building pages and articles, making location-specific research easy
- An interactive timeline puts architecture history in perspective and provides context for movements, themes, and periods throughout architecture history
- An essential glossary where students can look up key terms

Coming soon

Global Encyclopedia of Women in Architecture

Filling a major gap in architectural historiography - the first authoritative reference to women architects and their work, and to key terms for gender and feminism in architecture. With over 1,000 entries and 600 images, covering 135 countries, all fully cross-searchable and browsable by theme, online and exclusive to the platform.

Encyclopedia of Vernacular Architecture of the World (2nd edition)

Exclusive to the platform, the definitive resource for the study of the world's vernacular and traditional building cultures. The second edition of this classic work will present a major development in the field, its expanded scope capturing two decades of concerted effort to document and understand the world's fast-disappearing traditional and vernacular building cultures.

Scan to visit the Bloomsbury Visual Arts
digital hub today

Follow us:  @bloomsburydigtl
 @bloomsburydigtl