

Seeing meets believing: visuals forms and representation in art

BLOOMSBURY DIGITAL RESOURCES PRESENTS

VISUAL CULTURE AND PHOTOGRAPHY

What does it mean to have perspective? Comics, digital imagery, and photo-poetry combine with early modern visual culture in this era-spanning collection.

Get your eye in with the latest scholarship on a diverse array of media. Featuring CHOICE award-winning content, this dynamic list of more than 50 titles brings together an insightful mix of themes and imagery – from representations of psychoanalysis to visual culture and empire.

The collection offers fresh perspectives on topics such as migration, the self, cities, and emotion, from some of the most important imprints within the field of Art and Visual Culture.

Discover how it can support research and redefine how you see the world.
