ARCHITECTURE DOCUMENTARIES COLLECTION

BRINGING ARCHITECTURE INTO FOCUS – EXPERIENCE IT NOW ON FILM

This collection of 24 documentary films explores key movements and iconic buildings worldwide, complete with architect profiles, building case studies, and video essays.

Enhance your course content with a videographic approach to architecture, interior design, and design history.

CONTENT HIGHLIGHTS

- Insight into influential architects — including Zaha Hadid, Norman Foster, Frank Lloyd Wright, Walter Gropius, Philip Johnson, and Paolo Soleri
- In-depth case studies of landmark buildings — such as the Pompidou Centre, the Guggenheim Museum, and the Fagus Factory
- Perspectives on sacred spaces and belief systems — spanning Christianity, Islam, Judaism, Hinduism, Buddhism, and Taoism
- Global viewpoints on design traditions — ranging from Japanese architectural principles to European modernity and emerging urban futures
- International perspectives that broaden learning — reflecting architecture's global reach and the diverse cultural influences which shape built environments
- Curriculum-aligned content — delivering exceptional coverage of major architects, movements and buildings in thought-provoking films, designed to support both teaching and research
- Ideal for academic streaming across disciplines — supporting modules in architecture, interiors, design, art history, cultural studies and related fields
