PATRON CONDUCT AND DISRUPTION POLICY

PURPOSE

This policy establishes guidelines for maintaining an enjoyable and respectful environment for all patrons while ensuring the artistic integrity of performances at Bravo! Vail Music Festival events.

DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR DEFINITION

Disruptive behavior includes, but is not limited to:

- Excessive talking, shouting, or loud conversations during performances;
- Use of electronic devices that emit sound or light during performances;
- Movement that blocks other patrons' views or disrupts the performance;
- Consumption of alcohol to the point of intoxication;
- Inappropriate language or behavior;
- Failure to supervise children resulting in disturbance to other patrons;
- Disrespectful action or language to ushers, staff, artists or personnel;
- Any behavior that interferes with the performance or other patrons' ability to enjoy the event.

ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY

Festival staff, security personnel, and venue management are authorized to address disruptive behavior through progressive measures including warnings, relocation, and removal from the venue. Such enforcement is the sole discretion of those authorized individuals. Failure to comply with their direction can result in removal from any event and future events without refund.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS FOR LAWN SEATING

Parents and guardians are responsible for supervising children in all seating areas, including the lawn. Children who cannot remain quiet during performances may be asked to relocate to designated family areas or take breaks outside the performance space with their guardians.

Patrons who believe they were unfairly removed may submit a written appeal to Festival Management within 48 hours of the incident for review.

This policy applies to all Bravo! Vail Music Festival concerts, events and venues.

MINOR ATTENDEES: If Attendee is accompanied by any minor on any Venue's premises, by allowing the minor(s) to accompany attendee, Attendee makes and agrees to all the foregoing assumptions, releases, indemnifications and agreements on behalf of such minor(s). If Attendee does not wish to or is not authorized to make such assumptions, releases, indemnifications and other agreements on behalf of the accompanied minor(s), Attendee should not allow the minor to enter the Venue's premises. Children 4 and under are free to sit on the lawn but require a ticket to enter – please reserve this free ticket at time of purchase for the adult/guardian in the party.

ALL-IN TICKET PRICING: Bravo! Vail presents extraordinary music, accessible to all. We provide extensive music education throughout our community, connect musicians and listeners, and celebrate the evolving world of classical music. We strive to provide the best experience for all audiences.

As we continue to maintain this high level of service, our in-house box office happily manages the ticketing and seating process for our patrons. The price of each ticket helps pay for production costs, artist fees and housing, and other expenses associated with the performance. However, ticket sales revenue covers less than half of what it costs to present world-class music in Colorado's most beautiful mountain setting.

Bravo! Vail utilizes all-in ticket pricing to better serve our audiences and we encourage patrons to consider adding a tax-deductible gift during your ticketing reservation to help cover overhead costs like:

- Credit card processing fees;
- Wages and training for our Patron Services staff;
- Print collateral associated with ticketing: ticket stock, envelopes, and postage for mailed tickets;
- Licensing and fees associated with our ticketing software, servers that host our ticketing platform, and other services to deliver digital ticketing.

Please consider donating during your ticket transaction, or by visiting BravoVail.org/donate.
