

L | C | A

In Honor of Excellence

LITIGATION COUNSEL
OF AMERICA

For Immediate Release

Linda Miller Savitt, a partner of Ballard, Rosenberg, Golper & Savitt, LLP in Universal City, California, has been selected to speak at the Spring Conference and Induction of Fellows for the Litigation Counsel of America on May 7-9, 2009, in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Ms. Savitt specializes in the representation of management in labor and employment matters. She has tried over 60 jury trials, numerous court trials and several arbitrations. Approximately 90% of her trials include cases with punitive damages allegations and she has received defense verdicts in approximately 85% of those trials. She was named one of California's Top 50 Women Litigators and one of the Top 75 Women Litigators by the Los Angeles Daily Journal. She was also recognized in the 2007 edition of "The Best Lawyers in America" in the specialties of labor and employment law. During the conference she will speak on how to best posture cases before trial not just legally, but strategically and practically with the use of various tools, resources, presentation devices and themes to effectively present a client's best case.

Ms. Savitt's presentation will be made to Fellows of the Litigation Counsel of America, a trial lawyer honorary society which represents less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. As a Charter Fellow of the LCA, Ms. Savitt will be recognized at a banquet at The Inn and Spa at Loretto in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Fellowship in the LCA is highly selective and by invitation only. Fellows are carefully selected based upon evaluations of effectiveness and accomplishment in litigation, and superior ethical reputation. The LCA seeks a high level of diversity in its composition, and includes Women's and Diversity Initiatives. Established as a trial and appellate lawyer honorary society reflecting the American bar in the twenty-first century, the LCA represents the best in law among its membership.

For more information regarding the LCA or the Santa Fe Conference, please contact Marlee Terry at 212-724-4128 or marlee.terry@litcounsel.org.