

Know your memberships

No matter what your involvement in eventing, there's a membership to suit you. Here, we break down what each includes to help you to find your membership

FULL INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP

- Third party insurance on horse-related activity
- Compete at BE events
- Own a horse with a current season ticket
- Discounts on various equestrian and non-equestrian events
- Free admission to events up to CCI2*
- Discount on training and winter series
- Bi-monthly British Eventing Life magazine

OWNING MEMBERSHIPS:

Benefits include:

- Third party insurance for current season ticket horses
- Own a horse with a current season ticket
- Discounts on various equestrian and non-equestrian events
- Free admission to events up to CCI2*
- Discount on training and winter series
- Bi-monthly British Eventing Life magazine

INDIVIDUAL OWNER MEMBERSHIP

For sole owners of a horse who do not ride their horse in competitions.

JOINT OWNER

This is for two members owning a horse.

SYNDICATE

If there are three or more owners of a horse then this is the membership you need. The first three members get the benefits shown below. Any further members can be added at an extra fee.

CORPORATE

Any company owning a horse needs to take up this membership and up to three people receive the benefits listed left.

SUPPORTER INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP/SUPPORTER COMPANY MEMBERSHIP

In addition to the following benefits, a Supporter Company Member may display their company logo on rider and horse clothing at BE events (subject to approval and size restrictions).

- Ability to purchase Day Passes to compete at BE events (individual supporter only)
- Discounts on various equestrian and non-equestrian events
- Free admission to events up to CCI2*
- Discount on training and winter series
- Bi-monthly British Eventing Life magazine

DAY PASS MEMBERSHIP

- Ability to purchase Day Passes to compete at BE events (maximum of four events on Day Passes)
- Discounts on various equestrian and non-equestrian events
- Discount on training and winter series
- Bi-monthly digital issues British Eventing Life Lite version

Four year old horses can compete in a maximum of four BE90 4YO or BE80(T) classes in a season (including the Four Year Old Championships). Four year olds may only compete on day or training passes.

What about your horse?

Once you are a Full, Owner, Day Pass, Company, Syndicate or Joint Member, you can then purchase a horse season ticket. See which one is right for you

