

Privacy Policy

PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

In line with the Protection of Personal Information Act, Broll is committed to protecting the privacy of personal information of our data subjects. The information you share with us as a data subject allows us to provide you with the best experience with our products and services, or as a stakeholder.

The company has dedicated policies and procedures in place to protect all personal information collected and processed by us. We will never sell your personal information.

Please read below for more information on what is personal information, how we collect, process, use and disclose personal information.

- 1) Personal information includes any information by which you can be identified and which relates to you as an identifiable person such as your name, email address, physical and postal addresses, race, sex, age and/or internet address of the domain from which you are visiting.
- 2) We use different methods to collect information from and about you. Your personal information may either be collected by us or provided by you. We will only collect your personal information by lawful and fair means and, where appropriate with your knowledge or consent.
- 3) We process personal information for various reasons. Before or at the time of collecting your personal information, we will identify the purpose(s) for which the information is being collected. Personal information is used as is appropriate in the normal course of business to provide the products and services. We may retain any information for purposes of ongoing business relationships or to communicate directly with you. The reasons for processing of information is including but not limited to the following.
 - To manage information, products and/or services requested by data subjects;
 - To help us identify data subjects when they contact us;
 - To improve the quality of our services;
 - Marketing purposes
- 4) Any and all information collected will be kept strictly confidential. We will not disclose your personal information to anyone, unless we obtain your consent, or unless it required or permitted by law or regulatory authority. It will not be sold, loaned or otherwise disclosed to any organisation.
- 5) We may retain any information for purposes of ongoing business relationships or to communicate directly with you. We will store and keep your personal information according to the retention (holding) periods defined by law for legitimate business purposes and will take reasonably practicable steps to make sure that it is kept up to date and deleted and archived according to our defined retention schedules.
- 6) Upon request we will furnish you with details of the personal information we hold about you. You may submit your request using Form2 Correction or Deletion of Personal Information which can be sourced using our PAIA page www.broll.com/paia. Should you believe that any information we hold about you is incorrect, please inform us using Form 2 and we will correct it.
- 7) We may transfer to, and store personal information we collect about you, in countries other than South Africa, if the relevant business transactions or situation requires trans-border processing. These countries may not have the same data protection laws as South Africa.
- 8) Where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the personal information of a data subject has been accessed or acquired by any unauthorised person, Broll Property Group (Pty) Ltd shall notify:
 - a) the Regulator; and
 - b) the data subject, unless the identity of such data subject cannot be established.
 The notification will be made as soon as reasonably possible after the discovery of the compromise, taking into account the legitimate needs of law enforcement or any measures reasonably necessary to determine the scope of the compromise and to restore the integrity of the responsible party's information system.
