

You will have known me as Uncle Eric, my new friends have called me Buddy...

It was after a long journey to Worcester that they found me, one of eight little Cairn pups, still with my mum, Irene.

Our little Buddy

I said good-bye to my brothers and sisters...

I got chosen

My bed

132 miles later I was at my new home in Preston..

Me in..

My house

..my garden

August

November

December

September

October

Happy Christmas Mummy! from Buddy xx