Requesting I-20s for F-2 Dependents

Documents to provide:
1. F-1 student's passport
2. Passport information page for all dependents requesting F-2 I-20s
3. Bank certificate less than four months old reflecting supporting funds
    a. Must reflect amounts beyond the cost of F-1 student's tuition at CBU
        i. Spouse: $7,000
        ii. Child: $3,000 (each)

Regulations related to F-2 dependents:
- F-2 dependents may not engage in paid employment.
- F-2 dependents are not eligible for social security numbers.
- F-2 dependents can engage in study at an SEVP-certified school as long as they are enrolled in less than a full course of study.
- F-2 minor children must comply with state education requirements regarding K-12 education.
- F-2 minor children may attend any public school at the appropriate grade level without any additional permissions from SEVP.
- F-2 minor children should not transfer to a private school without speaking to the F-1 student's DSO first.
- Dependent children over the age of 21 are not eligible for F-2 status.

Acknowledgement Statement:

By signing this form, you confirm that you understand the regulations and limitations of F-2 dependent(s) as it relates to living and residing in the United States. You, the F-1 student, are swearing that you have your own adequate financial resources to support your dependent(s) for every year that they will live with you in the United States. You understand that when your F-1 studies and any additional work authorizations are completed that your F-2 dependent(s) must exit the United States with you within the 60-day grace period provided by the Department of Homeland Security. You understand that the F-2 regulations are not limited to the items listed here and that the Department of Homeland Security is able to adjust these regulations at any time and compliance is still mandatory.

CBU ID: _____   SEVIS ID: _____

F-1 Signature: _____

F-1 Printed Name: _____   Date: _____