

BUSINESS

Program	Disclosure Statement
Accountancy (M.Acc)	Requirements for the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) license vary by state and may, at minimum, include completing an application, paying a fee, passing licensure exams, and completing work experience. To apply for an initial CPA license in Tennessee, candidates must earn a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university and obtain a total of 150 semester hours of education. Education must include 30 semester hours in accounting (24 of which must be in upper division courses) and 24 semester hours in business courses. CBU's Master of Accountancy program, combined with a bachelor's degree program providing at least 30 credit hours of non-accounting business courses and 120 credit hours total, meets the educational requirements for Tennessee. The candidate must then pass the Uniform CPA Examination, score 90% or better on an ethics examination given by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), and complete one year of experience in accounting acceptable to the Board. Other states have their own certification/licensure requirements; links to information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.
Accounting (BS)	Requirements for the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) license vary by state and may, at minimum, include completing an application, paying a fee, passing licensure exams, and completing work experience. CBU's BS in Accounting by itself does not meet all the educational requirements for any states, because all states require a total of 150 credit hours. To apply for an Initial CPA license in Tennessee, candidates must earn a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university and obtain a total of 150 semester hours of education. Education must include 30 semester hours in accounting (24 of which must be in upper division courses) and 24 semester hours in business courses. Completing both the BS in Accounting and Master of Accountancy programs at CBU meets the educational requirements for Tennessee. The candidate must then pass the Uniform CPA Examination, score 90% or better on an ethics examination given by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), and complete one year of experience in accounting acceptable to the Board. Other states have their own certification/licensure requirements; links to information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.
Business Administration (BS, Banking Concentration)	This program is not intended to meet any professional licensure requirements in any U.S. state, territory, jurisdiction or location.
Finance (BS)	This program is not intended to meet any professional licensure requirements in any U.S. state, territory, jurisdiction or location.

EDUCATION

Program	Disclosure Statement
Cultural Studies (BA)	To be licensed to teach in the State of Tennessee, prospective teachers must earn a bachelor's degree from a regionally-accredited college or university, meet all professional assessment requirements as specified by the State Board of Education, complete an approved educator preparation program, and be recommended for licensure by the program provider. CBU is approved by the State of Tennessee as an educator preparation program and nationally accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). The National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement, but does not guarantee full reciprocity. Educators may have to complete additional requirements, such as coursework, assessments, or classroom experience, before receiving a full professional certificate in the new state. Because these requirements vary by state, type of licensure, and experience level of the educator and are subject to change without notice, CBU cannot determine whether this degree program meets the educational requirements for licensure in any state except Tennessee. Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.
Early Childhood (BA)	To be licensed to teach in the State of Tennessee, prospective teachers must earn a bachelor's degree from a regionally-accredited college or university, meet all professional assessment requirements as specified by the State Board of Education, complete an approved educator preparation program, and be recommended for licensure by the program provider. CBU is approved by the State of Tennessee as an educator preparation program and nationally accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). The National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement, but does not guarantee full reciprocity. Educators may have to complete additional requirements, such as coursework, assessments, or classroom experience, before receiving a full professional certificate in the new state. Because these requirements vary by state, type of licensure, and experience level of the educator and are subject to change without notice, CBU cannot determine whether this degree program meets the educational requirements for licensure in any state except Tennessee. Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.
Education (M.Ed)	CBU's Master of Education degree program is designed for students who have already met the requirements for teacher licensure through previous undergraduate or graduate work.

Program	Disclosure Statement
Educational Leadership (MSEL)	CBU's Master of Science in Educational Leadership degree program is designed for students who have already met the requirements for teacher licensure through previous undergraduate or graduate work. The program prepares students to take the Beginning Instructional Leadership License test for the state of Tennessee. The National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement, but does not guarantee full reciprocity. Educators may have to complete additional requirements, such as coursework, assessments, or classroom experience, before receiving a full professional certificate in the new state. Because these requirements vary by state, type of licensure, and experience level of the educator and are subject to change without notice, CBU cannot determine whether this degree program meets the educational requirements for licensure in any state except Tennessee. Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.
Elementary Education K-5 (BA)	To be licensed to teach in the State of Tennessee, prospective teachers must earn a bachelor's degree from a regionally-accredited college or university, meet all professional assessment requirements as specified by the State Board of Education, complete an approved educator preparation program, and be recommended for licensure by the program provider. CBU is approved by the State of Tennessee as an educator preparation program. Other states have their own certification/licensure requirements; links to information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.
English Education (BA)	To be licensed to teach in the State of Tennessee, prospective teachers must earn a bachelor's degree from a regionally-accredited college or university, meet all professional assessment requirements as specified by the State Board of Education, complete an approved educator preparation program, and be recommended for licensure by the program provider. CBU is approved by the State of Tennessee as an educator preparation program and nationally accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). The National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement, but does not guarantee full reciprocity. Educators may have to complete additional requirements, such as coursework, assessments, or classroom experience, before receiving a full professional certificate in the new state. Because these requirements vary by state, type of licensure, and experience level of the educator and are subject to change without notice, CBU cannot determine whether this degree program meets the educational requirements for licensure in any state except Tennessee. Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.

Program	Disclosure Statement
Fast Track Administrative License	CBU's Fast Track Administrative Licensure program is designed for students who have already met the requirements for teacher licensure through their previous undergraduate or graduate work. The program prepares students to take the Beginning Instructional Leadership License test for the state of Tennessee. The National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement, but does not guarantee full reciprocity. Educators may have to complete additional requirements, such as coursework, assessments, or classroom experience, before receiving a full professional certificate in the new state. Because these requirements vary by state, type of licensure, and experience level of the educator and are subject to change without notice, CBU cannot determine whether this degree program meets the educational requirements for licensure in any state except Tennessee. Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.
History Education (BA)	To be licensed to teach in the State of Tennessee, prospective teachers must earn a bachelor's degree from a regionally-accredited college or university, meet all professional assessment requirements as specified by the State Board of Education, complete an approved educator preparation program, and be recommended for licensure by the program provider. CBU is approved by the State of Tennessee as an educator preparation program and nationally accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). The National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement, but does not guarantee full reciprocity. Educators may have to complete additional requirements, such as coursework, assessments, or classroom experience, before receiving a full professional certificate in the new state. Because these requirements vary by state, type of licensure, and experience level of the educator and are subject to change without notice, CBU cannot determine whether this degree program meets the educational requirements for licensure in any state except Tennessee. Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.
Liberal Studies (BA)	CBU's Liberal Studies degree program is designed for students who intend to complete the requirements for teacher licensure in Tennessee by continuing to a Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) program. The National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement, but does not guarantee full reciprocity. Educators may have to complete additional requirements, such as coursework, assessments, or classroom experience, before receiving a full professional certificate in the new state. Because these requirements vary by state, type of licensure, and experience level of the educator and are subject to change without notice, CBU cannot determine whether this degree program meets the educational requirements for licensure in any state except Tennessee. Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.

Program	Disclosure Statement
Liberal Studies Education K-5 (BA)	To be licensed to teach in the State of Tennessee, prospective teachers must earn a bachelor's degree from a regionally-accredited college or university, meet all professional assessment requirements as specified by the State Board of Education, complete an approved educator preparation program, and be recommended for licensure by the program provider. CBU is approved by the State of Tennessee as an educator preparation program and nationally accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). The National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement, but does not guarantee full reciprocity. Educators may have to complete additional requirements, such as coursework, assessments, or classroom experience, before receiving a full professional certificate in the new state. Because these requirements vary by state, type of licensure, and experience level of the educator and are subject to change without notice, CBU cannot determine whether this degree program meets the educational requirements for licensure in any state except Tennessee. Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.
Mathematics (BS), Education concentration	To be licensed to teach in the State of Tennessee, prospective teachers must earn a bachelor's degree from a regionally-accredited college or university, meet all professional assessment requirements as specified by the State Board of Education, complete an approved educator preparation program, and be recommended for licensure by the program provider. CBU is approved by the State of Tennessee as an educator preparation program and nationally accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). The National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement, but does not guarantee full reciprocity. Educators may have to complete additional requirements, such as coursework, assessments, or classroom experience, before receiving a full professional certificate in the new state. Because these requirements vary by state, type of licensure, and experience level of the educator and are subject to change without notice, CBU cannot determine whether this degree program meets the educational requirements for licensure in any state except Tennessee. Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.

Program	Disclosure Statement
Natural Science Education (BA)	To be licensed to teach in the State of Tennessee, prospective teachers must earn a bachelor's degree from a regionally-accredited college or university, meet all professional assessment requirements as specified by the State Board of Education, complete an approved educator preparation program, and be recommended for licensure by the program provider. CBU is approved by the State of Tennessee as an educator preparation program and nationally accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). The National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement, but does not guarantee full reciprocity. Educators may have to complete additional requirements, such as coursework, assessments, or classroom experience, before receiving a full professional certificate in the new state. Because these requirements vary by state, type of licensure, and experience level of the educator and are subject to change without notice, CBU cannot determine whether this degree program meets the educational requirements for licensure in any state except Tennessee. Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.
Special Education (BA)	To be licensed to teach in the State of Tennessee, prospective teachers must earn a bachelor's degree from a regionally-accredited college or university, meet all professional assessment requirements as specified by the State Board of Education, complete an approved educator preparation program, and be recommended for licensure by the program provider. CBU is approved by the State of Tennessee as an educator preparation program and nationally accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). The National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement, but does not guarantee full reciprocity. Educators may have to complete additional requirements, such as coursework, assessments, or classroom experience, before receiving a full professional certificate in the new state. Because these requirements vary by state, type of licensure, and experience level of the educator and are subject to change without notice, CBU cannot determine whether this degree program meets the educational requirements for licensure in any state except Tennessee. Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.
Teaching (MAT)	CBU's Master of Arts in Teaching Program offers coursework required for initial licensure in Tennessee for students who do not already hold an apprentice or professional teaching license. CBU is approved by the State of Tennessee as an educator preparation program and nationally accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). The National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement, but does not guarantee full reciprocity. Educators may have to complete additional requirements, such as coursework, assessments, or classroom experience, before receiving a full professional certificate in the new state. Because these requirements vary by state, type of licensure, and experience level of the educator and are subject to change without notice, CBU cannot determine whether this degree program meets the educational requirements for licensure in any state except Tennessee. Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.

Program	Disclosure Statement
Teaching Licensure	CBU's Teacher Licensure Program offers coursework required for initial licensure in Tennessee for students who already hold a bachelor's degree. CBU is approved by the State of Tennessee as an educator preparation program and nationally accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). The National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC) Interstate Agreement facilitates the mobility of educators among the states and other jurisdictions that are members of NASDTEC and have signed the Agreement, but does not guarantee full reciprocity. Educators may have to complete additional requirements, such as coursework, assessments, or classroom experience, before receiving a full professional certificate in the new state. Because these requirements vary by state, type of licensure, and experience level of the educator and are subject to change without notice, CBU cannot determine whether this degree program meets the educational requirements for licensure in any state except Tennessee. Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here.

ENGINEERING

Program	Disclosure Statement
Chemical Engineering (BS)	CBU's ABET-accredited BS in Chemical Engineering program fully meets the educational requirements to sit for the Fundamentals of Engineering (FE) exam and subsequently, after at least four years of practice, the Principles and Practice of Engineering (PE) exam. The FE is a national exam, and a passing result in any state is generally accepted nationwide. Additional work experience and professional recommendations are required in all states prior to sitting for the PE exam, but, as an ABET-accredited program, CBU's degree meets the educational requirements for licensure in all U.S. states and territories.
Civil Engineering (BS)	CBU's ABET-accredited BS in Civil Engineering program fully meets the educational requirements to sit for the Fundamentals of Engineering (FE) exam and subsequently, after at least four years of practice, the Principles and Practice of Engineering (PE) exam. The FE is a national exam, and a passing result in any state is generally accepted nationwide. Additional work experience and professional recommendations are required in all states prior to sitting for the PE exam, but, as an ABET-accredited program, CBU's degree meets the educational requirements for licensure in all U.S. states and territories.
Construction Management (BS)	This program is not intended to meet any professional licensure requirements in any U.S. state, territory, jurisdiction or location.
Electrical Engineering (BS)	CBU's ABET-accredited BS in Electrical Engineering program fully meets the educational requirements to sit for the Fundamentals of Engineering (FE) exam and subsequently, after at least four years of practice, the Principles and Practice of Engineering (PE) exam. The FE is a national exam, and a passing result in any state is generally accepted nationwide. Additional work experience and professional recommendations are required in all states prior to sitting for the PE exam, but, as an ABET-accredited program, CBU's degree meets the educational requirements for licensure in all U.S. states and territories.
Engineering Management (BS)	This program is not intended to meet any professional licensure requirements in any U.S. state, territory, jurisdiction or location.
Engineering Management (MS)	This program is not intended to meet any professional licensure requirements in any U.S. state, territory, jurisdiction or location.

Program	Disclosure Statement
Mechanical Engineering	CBU's ABET-accredited BS in Mechanical Engineering program fully meets the educational requirements to sit for the Fundamentals of Engineering (FE) exam and subsequently, after at least four years of practice, the Principals and Practice of Engineering (PE) exam. The FE is a national exam, and a passing result in any state is generally accepted nationwide. Additional work experience and professional recommendations are required in all states prior to sitting for the PE exam, but, as an ABET-accredited program, CBU's degree meets the educational requirements for licensure in all U.S. states and territories.

HEALTH SCIENCES

Program	Disclosure Statement
Health Science (BS)	CBU'S BS in Health Sciences is designed to prepare students for work in a healthcare setting or for professional- and/or graduate-level clinical healthcare programs. This program, by itself, is not intended to meet any professional licensure requirements in any U.S. state, territory, jurisdiction or location.
Nursing (BSN)	CBU's RN-to-BSN program is designed for students who are already working as registered nurses. With a few exceptions, the CBU Traditional BSN Nursing Program meets the educational requirements for licensure in almost all U.S. states and territories. Completing the program does not guarantee licensure; all students must pass the NCLEX licensing exam. Graduates of the CBU entry-level BSN track are eligible to sit for the NCLEX upon application to and approval by any state board of nursing within the United States that is a member of the National Council of State Boards of Nursing (NCSBN). Additional information about obtaining licensure outside Tennessee can be found here .
Physician Assistant Studies (MS)	CBU's MS in Physician Assistant Studies program meets the educational requirements for students to take and pass the Physician Assistant National Certifying Examination (PANCE) and apply for state medical licensure to work with a supervising physician or surgeon in all U.S. states and territories.

PSYCHOLOGY/ART THERAPY

Program	Disclosure Statement
Applied Psychology (BA)	This program is not intended to meet any professional licensure requirements in any U.S. state, territory, jurisdiction or location.
Mental Health Counseling (MS)	CBU's MS in Clinical Mental Health Counseling is a new program that is seeking accreditation through the Council for the Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) . At this time, CBU has not determined if this program meets the educational requirements for licensure. Additional information about obtaining licensure can be found here .
Professional Psychology (AA, BA)	This program is not intended to meet any professional licensure requirements in any U.S. state, territory, jurisdiction or location.
Psychology (BA)	This program is not intended to meet any professional licensure requirements in any U.S. state, territory, jurisdiction or location.
Visual Arts (BA, Art Therapy Concentration)	This program is not intended to meet any professional licensure requirements in any U.S. state, territory, jurisdiction or location.