

The Comfort Keepers Advantage

What You Can Expect from Comfort Keepers

- Professional caregivers that are specially trained to care for people with dementia
- Education for your family to help you better understand dementia and what you can do for your loved one
- Structured activities geared to your loved one's interests and capabilities that provide physical, mental, and emotional stimulation
- Home modification guidance for creating a safe, nurturing, and relaxing environment
- Connection to medical professionals, support groups, and other resources
- In-home care services such as personal care, companionship, housekeeping, and family respite care

Training Makes All The Difference

Our Comfort Keepers are professional and well trained. Each team member completes training to deliver a special type of care that includes four interrelated aspects: engagement of the mind, an active body, proper nutrition, and safety.

We are the premier area provider for dementia-trained care givers. Every member of our staff has been coached on how to identify the behavioral cues of our dementia clients and has received extensive, mandatory training on how to address those behaviors.

Our training continues to evolve with team members' experiences and when new treatment options are available.

There When You Need Us

- Available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, including holidays and weekends
- Able to initiate care within 24 hours of contact
- If your Comfort Keeper is ill or cannot make it to work, our team of Comfort Keepers will be ready to fill in
- To ensure the consistency of your schedule, we have a systematic approach to track when a Comfort Keeper arrives and leaves a client's home

Your Team of Professional Care Givers

Comfort Keepers are the compassionate in-home caregivers who deliver our premier brand of caregiving.

Every Comfort Keeper has a natural gift for caring for others. This is the most important quality, but rest assured each and every one has:

- Passed a rigorous screening and interviewing process
- Completed appropriate continuing education courses
- Received extensive, and continuous, training
- Passed background checks
- Acquired the necessary state-mandated bonds and insurance, as well as workers' compensation insurance

Interactive Caregiving

The elderly deserve to live healthier, longer, and more purposeful lives. It is our firm belief that Interactive Caregiving emotionally, mentally, physically, and socially, enriches seniors' lives.

Through our Interactive Caregiving plan, we are able to provide care that brings meaning to your loved one's day. Each individual plan features activities such as:

- Social engagement by visiting with local friends
- Preparing a meal together will spark daily interaction and provide a sense of achievement.
- Engagement through a discussion of personal interests and current events to stimulate the mind

Take Care of Yourself Too

It is important that family caregivers make time to care for themselves and preserve other relationships and aspects of their lives. Comfort Keepers can provide much-needed respite care. You can trust us to provide the type of care that brings peace-of-mind to you and your loved one.
