Congratulations
April 2021
Comfort Keeper of the Month!

Alberta L.

Alberta does her absolute very best with her client, always remembering to bring her smile and compassionate heart to every shift. We are honored to have Alberta as a member of our Comfort Keepers Team.

Alberta's client appreciates all the hard work she does on a daily basis; she works from the moment she arrives until the moment she leaves. Alberta's heart is full of compassion and quickly understands the needs of her client. We appreciate her care and concern for her clients' safety and well-being. We appreciate her outstanding work ethic and for treating her client with the dignity and respect he deserves which is right in line with our Comfort Keepers Mission Statement.

Congratulations Alberta, it is a pleasure to name you our April 2021 Comfort Keeper of the Month.

Why Comfort Keepers?

Comfort Keepers is a good company to work for and the office staff are very supportive.

What do you LOVE about your job?

I'm able to help someone who needs my help and makes me feel appreciated.

Please share one or 2 facts about yourself:

I do what I can to make my clients feel that they are getting the best care that they deserve. And they also have a voice in their care needs.

What makes you a successful CK?

Always Be observant. Even if the client can't always tell you what's wrong, it helps you and client get the right care that they really need.

Words of Wisdom you'd like to pass on to your

TEAM members:

Always talk to each other. Keep good communication between you, your fellow co-workers, clients, and client's family. It works.

To help older adults welcome spring, we've compiled a few ideas for outdoor activities that can help rejuvenate mind, body and soul.

- Take a walk. ...
- Visit the farmers market. ...
- Do some spring cleaning. ...
- Plant a garden. ...
- Go on a picnic. ...
- Eat outdoors at your favorite restaurant. ...
- Install a bird feeder. ...
