Comfort Keeper of the Month!

Kimie C.

Kimie makes every effort to be the best Comfort Keeper she can be, always on time for her shifts and completes her mandatory training every month! She is willing to accept additional shifts and does so with a happy heart. Kimie's kindness and patience helps assure she is well received by clients and their family.

Kimie does her absolute very best with each and every client she visits, always remembering to bring her smile and compassionate heart to every shift. We appreciate her outstanding work ethic and for treating our clients with the dignity and respect they deserve which is right in line with our Comfort Keepers Mission Statement.

Congratulations Kimie!

"There are only four kinds of people in the world. Those who have been caregivers. Those who are currently caregivers. Those who will be caregivers, and those who will need a caregiver." ----Rosalyn Carter

CK Kudos

Carrie S. Client H.S. stated "Carrie is doing a good job in the short time she has been with him."

Derek C. Client E.G. called to say what a great job Derek did for her. She had a transportation shift and it felt like a big brother picking her up. She stated it was a pleasant experience amongst a lot of unpleasant things going on and it helped.

Shyrl K. Client D.A. stated he would quit the company if Shyrl was taken off his schedule. She is intelligent and highly motivated.

One of the best things an in-home care provider can offer is consistent monitoring. If your client starts to experience confusion, memory troubles or has trouble talking, you may well be the first to notice.

Quality senior care enables you to closely monitor the condition of your senior clients. From the condition of their skin to any changes in cognition or speech, you can let their family and physician know of any changes.

October Monthly Mandatory Training:
