Elevating the Human Spirit™

Private Caregiver Vs. Comfort Keepers®

Working as a private caregiver, whether “under the table” or not, may seem like a good idea, but it comes with many risks. Here are a few important things to consider when weighing your options.

PRIVATE CAREGIVER

COMFORT KEEPERS

Extra paperwork and possibility of fines and legal ramifications if filed incorrectly

TAX RISKS

Less paperwork, less risk, and more quality time with clients

Risk of hefty medical bills and financial risk if sued

WORKER'S COMP

Workman's comp benefits and liability coverage

Lower SS benefits could affect your retirement later in life

SOCIAL SECURITY

Secure SS benefits, less worry about your retirement

Without accountability, may be underpaid or paid late

WAGE RISK

Paid accurately and on time for all the hours you work

May be pressured to perform illegal medical tasks

MEDICAL BACK-UP

Access to a nurse available when medical issues arise

Greater risk of prosecution if accused of theft or harm

LEGAL PROTECTIONS

Comfort Keepers provides Liability Insurance and Bonding for your protection

Little or no recourse when resolving mistreatment or harassment

SUPPORT

Help with resolving issues such as mistreatment or harassment

No advanced training and educational opportunities, no career advancement

CAREER GROWTH

A rewarding career with opportunity for advancement, education, and training

The Comfort Keepers Difference

At Comfort Keepers, we support our caregivers and help them avoid these risks, so they can focus on elevating the spirits of the seniors they care for. They develop relationships that make a difference in their quality of life and are part of a team that helps seniors thrive by creating moments of joy, connection, and purpose.
