| Consultation lead officer | George Marshall |

3. Purpose of the consultation

There is a statutory requirement for Local Planning Authorities to prepare a Local Plan (The Exeter Plan) and to involve the community in the plan-making process. The Exeter Plan will provide the vision for the city's future up to 2040. In doing so, the Exeter Plan will need to address a raft of important planning issues including how we respond to climate change, where we build new homes and provide new jobs, how we protect and enhance our historic and natural environments, how we ensure that our high streets and communities continue to thrive and how we travel.

This Full Draft Exeter Plan consultation is the second version of the plan and includes the vision for the city, a spatial strategy which focusses development towards brownfield land, a set of Liveable Exeter principles, potential development sites for a mixture of uses including housing and a draft of the full set of planning policies proposed for Exeter. This version has been informed by the consultation responses received during the Outline Draft Exeter Plan consultation held in autumn 2022. The consultation will predominantly be online, but there will be public exhibitions across the city. It is a statutory consultation.

It is vital that local people, businesses, community groups and stakeholders have their say in shaping the Exeter Plan so that the document is informed by the views of the community. Consultation will enable the wider community to inform the document as it evolves towards its final version, will fulfil statutory requirements and will be in accordance with the Council's Statement of Community Involvement and Consultation Charter.

4. Timing, duration and key milestones

Consultation will run for 12 weeks (twice the 6 week statutory requirement) 23 October 2023 – 15 January 2024

A report will be presented to Executive in spring 2024 exploring the comments made to the consultation and explaining how they will be taken into account in shaping the next stage of the Exeter Plan. This will be the final draft of the Exeter Plan, the publication version. Public consultation on this will be held in 2024.

7. Public Sector Equality Duty

The consultation approach provides a range of digital, hard copy and in person methods to ensure people have options and fair opportunity to partake in the consultation. Further detail included below:

- Online platform 'Commonplace' used to host consultation in addition to other digital presence.
- Hard copies available in specified public places and on request.
- The consultation document has been made fully accessible and invites people who would like to view the document in an alternative format to contact the Council. An audio version of the plan is being made available.
- Accessibility has been considered in the selection of venues for exhibitions, including a range of locations across the city and ensuring the venues are wheelchair accessible.
- Timings of the exhibitions have been considered and will be run from lunchtime, throughout the afternoon and into the evening to account for a range of working hours or care commitments, for example.
- The Local Plan team is also engaging with local community groups to ensure we reach out to as many people as possible.

The wide reaching, overall approach to consultation takes into account provision for people with protected characteristics.

8. Supporting information

- The Full Draft Exeter Plan document
- Survey questions
- A series of evidence documents.

The Full Draft plan and survey will be available:

- Online
- Hard copy (self-print; request; at the exhibitions; reference copies in libraries, civic centre)

The evidence information will be available online and at the public exhibitions.

9. Publicity

The consultation will be promoted across a variety of marketing and communications channels, including:

Digital: ECC website and social media platforms, plus Liveable Exeter, Exeter Live Better and partner channels.

Media: regular press releases and updates in addition to a media launch of the consultation.

Advertising: advertising banners will also be located at leisure centres, the RAMM, and other points across the city. Digital advertising screens, traditional print advertisements, vehicle advertising on Exeter City Council's fleet of vehicles, and a display to be located in the Customer Service Centre at the Civic Centre.

The results will be available in the form of a comments summary in 2024, alongside the Publication version of the Exeter Plan. This will be available online, and in hard copy for those who request it.

10. Accessibility

Guidance set out in 'Guide on how to create accessible Word documents' ensures that all word, PDF documents and online text meets accessibility and readability requirements.

Accessible PDF documents will be available to download on the website and can be requested via hard copy.

11. Demographics

The consultation aims to reach a wide population demographic. The demographic information below will be collected in order to assess the effectiveness of the consultation at achieving this aim:

- Ethnicity
- Age
- Disability
- Gender

All data collected will comply with GDPR requirements.

12. GDPR

Planning Policy Privacy Notice available online.

13. Resource implications

Consultation is internally resourced (Local Plans Team, Development Management Team, Communications Team) and funded by existing agreed staffing and budget for the Local Plan which includes consultation.

14. Carbon Footprint (Environmental) Implications:

There are no direct carbon/environmental impacts arising from the consultation on the Full Draft Exeter Plan. However, the digital consultation methods will minimise the carbon footprint associated with holding the consultation. In addition, the Full Draft of the Exeter Plan has a key focus on climate change.
