

Resilient Nashua Summit
December 18th, 2018
Rivier University
Dion Center Reception Room

8:30am-9:00am - Check-in, Coffee, Pastries, & Fruit

9:00am-9:20am - Welcome

Sister Paula Marie Buley, IHM - President - Rivier University

Cooper Martin - Program Director - National League of Cities Sustainable Cities Institute

James Donchess - Mayor - City of Nashua, NH

9:20am-10:20am - Projected Climate Impacts to our Region from the Southern New Hampshire Climate Assessment

Dr. Cameron Wake - Josephine A. Lamprey Professor of Climate and Sustainability - University of New Hampshire Sustainability Institute

10:20am-11:20am - Efforts the City of Keene has Taken to Reduce their Greenhouse Gases and Adapt to Future Hazards

Rhett Lamb - Director of Planning - City of Keene, NH

11:20am-11:45am - Overview of Nashua's Current and Future Resilience and Sustainability Initiatives

Sarah Marchant - Director of Community Development - City of Nashua, NH

Kim Lundgren - CEO - Kim Lundgren Associates

11:45am-12:15pm - Lunch & Networking Break

12:15pm-1:00pm - How to Use the New Resilient Nashua Toolkit - Simple Tools and Templates to Prepare Your Business, Organization, or Department

Justin Kates - Director of Emergency Management - City of Nashua, NH

1:00pm-2:00pm - Making the Case for Resilience as a Competitive Edge

Dr. Stephen Flynn - Founding Director - Northeastern University Global Resilience Institute

2:00pm-3:00pm - The Waffle House Index

Pat Warner - Director of Public Relations and External Affairs - Waffle House, Inc.