Every Child A Reader
Cada Niño un Lector

Every Child Initiative - Multnomah County Library

Lucy Iraola and Mary Conde-Rivera
Every Child A Reader
Cada Niño un Lector

Every Child Initiative - Multnomah County Library

Lucy Iraola and Mary Conde-Rivera
Every Child A Reader - Cada Niño un Lector

“Today a reader, tomorrow a leader.” - Margaret Fuller

Multnomah County Library

Empowering our Community to Learn and Create

Offers materials, events and services through 19 libraries and outreach programs.
Every Child A Reader
Fostering a love of reading with nurturing parent-child interactions.

Objectives

- Encourage families to read together daily
- Increase everyday use of activities that promote literacy skills
- Increase parent/child engagement
- Improve literacy among families served
- Create lifelong readers!

ECAR is funded by The Library Foundation
ECAR Components
Book rotation and Literacy message to parents

Book Rotation
Children share with parents four different books at home every week.

Literacy Message to Parents

- Parent meetings
- Socializations

Reading is an essential life skill
Parent Meetings at their Sites
Socializations at MCL Libraries
Every Child A Reader Team

“Today a reader, tomorrow a leader.” - Margaret Fuller

Parents

Teachers or Home Visitors

Children

ECAR Coordinators
Coordinators

- Meet with each partner to review agreement and update information.
- Fulfill orders and answer questions.
- Provide support and Early Literacy information to implementers.
- Present Library and Early Literacy information at parent meetings and socializations.
- Distribute surveys and yellow bags.
400+ staff from 29 organizations implement the Every Child A Reader program.

Some of those organizations are: Head Start, Hacienda CDC, Oregon Child Development, Nurse family Partnership, Listos para el Kínder and Parents as Teachers.
Families

Parents and caregivers are children’s first teachers.

English, Spanish, Chinese, Vietnamese, Russian, Somali, Burmese and other non-English speaking families are served by our 29 partners.
Children

Children learn through their five senses during positive interactions with caring adults.

Around 8000 children are served through ECAR.
ECAR Books

- Books for infants, toddlers, preschoolers and for children with special needs.
- Multicultural books and in several languages.
- No fines, no charges.
EVERY CHILD A READER

Supporting early literacy and connecting families to MCL Services
Lucy Iraola
503-988-4482
lucyi@multcolib.org

Mary Conde-Rivera
503-988-5206
maryc@multcolib.org