

7 Day Mexico Cruise

For Packing and Planning

- Carry-on bag
- Checked bag(s) (up to 2 per guest)
- Packing cubes or vacuum-sealed bags
- Cruise insurance

Travel Essentials

- Passport* OR
 - State ID & US birth certificate*
- Credit cards and local currency (MXN)
- Medications & copies of prescriptions
- Boarding passes & itinerary
- Cell phone & camera
- Chargers (phone/tablet) & power bank(s)
- RFID wallet

Clothing

- Casual Wear (daytime): 6-8 outfits
- Formal Wear (evening): 1-3 outfits
- Activewear: 2-3 sets
- Swimwear: 2-3 pieces
- Pajamas and/or nightgown
- Light jacket and/or wrap (for cooler evenings or windy days)
- Versatile resort shoes
- Comfortable walking shoes
- Sandals/flip-flops
- Backpack, tote, or duffle bag
- Accessories: sunglasses, hat(s), jewelry

Personal Care

- Toiletry bag/dopp kit
- First-aid kit
- Oral care essentials
- Skincare essentials
- Shampoo & conditioner
- Body wash & lotion
- Shaving products
- Hair products
- Deodorant
- Perfume/cologne
- Contact lenses & solution
- Feminine-hygiene products
- Makeup
- Wrinkle release spray
- Sunscreen
- Aloe/after-sun care
- Insect repellent
- Hand Sanitizer
- Wet wipes
- Poo-Pourri
- Lip balm

For the Cabin and Ship

- Dramamine
- Sea-bands
- Magnetic hooks
- Door organizer
- Extra hangers
- Cruise-safe power strip
- Night light
- Eye mask
- Ear plugs
- Waterproof phone case
- Beach towels
- Towel clips
- Dry bag
- Lanyards
- Reusable water bottle
- A good book/eReader
- _____
- _____
- _____

*US nationals may use a valid state-issued ID and original birth certificate instead of a passport for cruises departing from and returning to the US. Non-US citizens should bring a passport and, if necessary, a visa. Verify requirements with your cruise line.
Ensure your power strip is non-surge protected. Check with your cruise line for specific requirements to avoid confiscation.

