Penang, Malaysia

Malaysia's outstanding beaches and exotic sights have made it one of Southeast Asia's most popular destinations. Penang is bursting with beaches, fishing villages, nature trails, forests and waterfalls. The multi-faceted personality of Penang, from its multi-ethnic community with its multi-cultural characteristics to its multiple places of attractions... all combine to make it a truly special destination. In 1826, Penang, along with Malacca and Singapore, became part of the Straits Settlements under the British administration in India. It moved to direct British colonial rule in 1867. In 1946 it became part of the Malayan Union, before becoming a state of the Federation of Malaya in 1948, which gained independence in 1957 and ultimately became Malaysia in 1963. The island was a free port until 1969. On July 7, 2008, George Town, the historic capital of Penang was formally inscribed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site alongside with Malacca. It is officially recognized as having a unique architectural and cultural townscape without parallel anywhere in East and Southeast Asia.

Experience Malaysia

Recommended Tour for Langkawi, Malaysia:

- Geopark Nature Experience: Nature lovers will revel in this adventure that explores a river, bat cave, fish farm, and watches eagles on the hunt. Begin with Winding River's ecosystem of mangrove forests, isolated islands and limestone rock formations. Cruise into a fabled bat cave to see hundreds of the winged "vampires" sleeping upside down. Walk the fish farm platforms to see the fish variety. Photograph hungry eagles diving with razor-precision for food. Note: This tour is not suitable for guests with limited mobility.

Book your tour today at the Shore Excursions Desk, Deck 3.

Information
